FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New York, New York, United States of America
(Free-Press-Release.com) November 8, 2010 --
Attendees at the 8th Annual Pocono Mountains Film Festival were treated to a surprise performance when Recording Artist Rachel Fine took to the stage October 30th to give an impromptu concert. Rachel Fine's involvement with the festival has developed over the past year while working with festival founder Bridget O. Davis on the Roberta Flack documentary, "The Magic Lady", currently in production and slated for release in 2011.

Fine was recently asked to sit on the Board of Directors for the Pocono Mountains Film Festival (PMFF). Says Davis, "We are honored to have Rachel Fine join us as a Board Member of the PMFF. We've been fans of her music for some time, however, Rachel is a rare artist whose talent stretches beyond her well-known music. Her on-camera work in television and film show Rachel's commitment to artistic development in all forms. We are genuinely excited about Rachel's involvement in the festival."

Fine performed the classic song "At Last" during the Awards Ceremony, dedicating the song to 2010 Humanitarian Award Recipient, Vy Higginsen. Other 2010 Festival Honorees included Terri J. Vaughn, Charlie Murphy, Andy Mehalshick, Anthony Quinn and Franc Reyes.
